“ Sharon and Cameron's son, Daniel, married our daughter, Jerah, six years ago. Together we all shared a wonderful grandson, Phoenix.

In all of our times together supporting Phoenix, we saw first hand what a wonderful person Sharon was.

To this day, through Daniel shepherding his own son, we see the true values and morals Cameron and Sharon instilled in their children.

We will certainly miss her, but know her teaching continues through Daniel and onto our shared Grandson, Phoenix.

We feel incredibly blessed to have known and loved Sharon so well.

“ Miss York was the best teacher a student could ask for. She was encouraging in learning and pursuing a love of history. She illustrated great concepts in ways that our young minds could grasp. She was a person to open up to and be heard. She now walks streets of gold, but she will we be dearly missed by those here.

She was my teacher. She saved my life. Id like to see if I can attend a funeral if I'm not too late. She's the best teacher I've ever had.

“ Sharon and I went to school together in Michigan. She was always kind and happy. I remember her being so proud of her beautiful name, Sharon Rose Fawn Burton. It was so exciting that she earned her PHD, not very long ago. Even though it seems that she has left this life way too soon, I believe she is now with Jesus.
