“ Rick,
I was saddened to hear about the passing of Sharon from my daughters, Jamie & Jan. We are all thinking of you and sending our heartfelt sympathy from different parts of the area/states. As Sharon remains in your heart forever, you will be in our thoughts and prayers in the coming days. God has another Angel to watch over you (and the pets that were very dear to her heart, too). A memorial in her name to the Greenville Humane Society will certainly touch her spirit.##imported-begin##Sharon Miller (WISCONSIN)##imported-end##

“ Words can't explain how things happen, but I want Rick and the family to know my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I only saw Sharon a couple of times but I felt like I knew her closer from the many conversations Rick and I enjoyed over the years.##imported-begin##Jamie Willis##imported-end##

“ Sharon will be missed by all of us. She was always so kind and giving to little Joseph when we shopped in Walgreens, buying him a balloon or a stuffed animal. Joseph still carries around the bunny rabbit she gave him around Easter last year, and I think of her every time I see "Band-Aid" (the bunny's name). She was a wonderful co-worker and friend. Our condolences to the family. God bless and know you are in our prayers.##imported-begin##Yvette, Jason, and Joseph Russo##imported-end##
