“ Mom, when we lived in Okinawa when I was young a hurricane showed up and you comforted us kids. You found Donald and me hiding under the bed. Dad was at work. We lived on a steep cliff and us boys thought the house was gonna go up in the air like in the wizard of Oz movie.

A few yrs later the divorce happened and we moved to Nevada. I was 9 or 10.

When I was a teen I would hitch hike from Maine to Mass in the summers cuz I missed you so much.

On the day I graduated HS you got Leon to come up and get me and I stayed with you for 2 weeks and you helped me get an apartment through someone you knew.

You were the one that introduced me to the love of my life my fiancée Mary Montgomery. Cancer took her away from us all. She was everything to me and I still love her to this day. I've always been very grateful for that introduction. Thank you Mom.

When you were in the greer hospital I came and saw you and cried my eyes out and told you how much I loved you and read a Christian daily to you and you repeated the words to me at one point. You told me you loved me. When you were moved to Marie's house although you couldn't speak it was a comfort to know you could still hear me and I read more to you. I'm glad to know you are no longer in pain and have passed into the light of God. It's a blessing to know your with loved ones and you are at peace.

One last thing..... You'll get there before I do but don't give up on me. I'll see you when my chores are through I don't know how long I'll be. But I'm not gonna let you down, just you wait and see. Between now and then till I see you both again....I'll be loving you two. Love, Me. Your son Jim.

“ There are grandmothers out there who would move heaven and earth for their grandchildren. My grandma always has moved heavens and earth for us thats for sure. She's always been there no matter what. She's been through so much in her life and has always been such a helpful lady to those around the community shes lived. She's been a social butterfly and taught us well. My grandmother was the glue the held things together many times when anyone need help to figure a way to fix something Grammy was there to help solve the problem putting her life aside. She has a wonderful smile and a great laugh. She would walk for miles at a time to get things accomplished that she'd set her mind on doing. She's a strong woman a tough cookie as she always say about some of us. Little did she realize she's one tough cookie herself.

“ Mom,

I'm never going to tell you how much I Love You and what you mean to me.

When I start thinking about all the things we did and times we shared, I feel so lost and like a big part of me died that day. I watched what you went thru over the last several weeks and went thru so many different feelings that I can't understand. But, that last day when I sat beside you, talked to you as you took those last few breaths, I saw all the pain go away and the peace in your face. I'm sure my brother was there to guide you home with him and I know you are together.

You told me you were going to be my guardian angel and I believe you always will be here with me.

I'll be back to write some more, so in the meantime enjoy your peace and eternal happiness with all our loved ones and as always walk with our Lord.

*I LOVE YOU MOM,
Marie*
