“ ✨ In Lyman's warm embrace, beneath the wings of Northgate Baptist Church, a divine friendship blossomed between Sheila and me. Our voices intertwined in heavenly harmony, praising the Lord in the church choir's sacred space and in the freedom of my car, winding through the majestic mountains of South Carolina. Together, we savored life's simple joys: breezy yard sales, delectable feasts, and countless gatherings in our homes, woven with laughter and love. Sheila's generous spirit gifted me a majestic angel bust, a symbol of her radiant warmth, welcoming all who enter. Though life's paths diverged, and visits grew scarce, our bond remained unbroken, anchored in the promise of eternity. To all who read this: don't let "another time" be your refrain. For Sheila, that time is now – radiant, glorious, and heavenly. Sheila Davis, may your walk with the Almighty be filled with unending joy, as you bask in the light of Christ Jesus. ✨🙏

“ Sheila became a part of our family through June Campbell. She came to our Christmas parties. She even helped us set up and organize my father's 90th birthday party. The Campbell's will certainly miss her and cherish the memories with Sheila. Susan Campbell Payne

Sheila was my neighbor for almost 23 years. She was a kind and generous person. She was always ready to help whenever she could. She will be missed by all of us who loved her. I take comfort in knowing she is in the loving arms of Jesus. Sympathy and peace to her loving Mother and extended family.
