“ *I am very saddened to hear of Sheila's passing. She was always such an upbeat and kind soul. A woman very proud of and very committed to her family and never once would forget to ask about mine. When I think of Sheila the first word that comes to mind is selfless...always eager to help & go above and beyond to do so. I pray for her eternal peace and many eternal Pom Pom dances in heaven, because that's certainly right where this woman went. My deepest condolences to her entire family. Sincerely,
