“ I am so sorry to hear of Shelly's death. I remember meeting her soon after she graduated and started her nursing career. She was so energetic and spirited. She lived life to the fullest. My late husband Dennis Kilgore, worked with her in the ED as well, and thought so much of her. They had many long discussions on the night shift. I'm sure they will continue those long talks in heaven.

Prayers to her family.

*Love and peace,
Dr. Teresa Kilgore*

John 14:1-4 “Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. 2 In My Father’s house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. 4 And where I go you know, and the way you know.”
