“ Dear Susan, Ms Fowler, Mr Johnson and Chase & family, I am so sorry about Sherryl. I know one thing she was loved, she was like a sister to me and we had a lott of fun together and spent many times talking on the phone. I remember the good times and my kids loved her and Uncle Glenn so much!!! Chase you brought such joy to your mom. I remember how she adored you and your family. She would get so tickled at Emma. I know this is a hard time for all of you and Im sorry and ask that all of you could find in your heart to forgive me, I did love Sherryl dearly and will miss her so much!!!
