“ John, Lamar, Jim and the Burnett Family: I am sorry about your mother during these last months and weeks especially. I hated to see that little fireball start to fizzle, but she fought long and hard, And God was merciful and blessed her and your family by not allowing her to struggle and linger on. He showed her compassion, mercy and grace. I always loved the fact that I was a wee bit taller than Shirley but I never had the chance to top it when Dennis kept her on top of his pedestal. He loved her and was good to her. He taught the 3 of you by example how to treat others, especially a lady in need, by example. Respect, honor, dignity, compassion, and honesty. Dennis would be proud. May you feel Gods Holy touch as you hurt, rely on him and your friends to help you, you're not alone and I'm speaking for me and my family, we will be with you every step of the way. May Gods grace, mercy, compassion, And love give you comfort and strength during this difficult time. Lumu and always here for you brother. In love and kindness,

The Rudolph Ashmore Family
