“ Shirley was undoubtedly the sweetest and kindness person and I couldn't ask for a better friend. She, I am sure will be missed by many. Our trips to the beach and the lake house will never be forgotten as all who went all got along so well and Shirley, being a great cook, always wanted to do the cooking and of course we all agreed with no hesitation. Her last years on this earth were very hard on her and I firmly agree that she was ready. My love to her family and all who cared so much for her.
