“ Tim,
*I am sorry to hear of Shirley's passing. She was a very fine Christian lady. Always treated me very well. I was welcomed to your home many times. I still remember her singing in church, her Christian character and her Christmas baking.
I remember your father, Ralph and grandmother Mrs. Roper also. I know the Lord will comfort you in this time and the time that lays ahead.*

“ *I had the privilege of knowing Shirley through Kevin. Tim was a good friend, church buddy and a big brother to Kevin. Kevin addressed Shirley as Mom. She loved Kevin, me and Danny very dearly. We enjoyed spending time together at their home as well as going out to eat at some of our favorite places. These fond memories will last forever. We love you and will surely miss you Mom! Tim, May the Lord be with you and comfort you.
Love from Danny and Selma.*
