“ We lived across the street from The Mahaffeys. We played with the boys and hung around with Shirley. She was a little older than we were. We always had such good times with all of them. Their parents were great to us too. Shirley was such a sweet person. She was always so caring and thoughtful. I was blessed to know Shirley and the whole family. May God bless you and may He be a blessings to all of you at this time.

With love,

“ I'm deeply saddened to hear of Shirley's passing and my sincere condolences to Edith and family. They lived across the street from my grandparents when we were in elementary school so we've been friends for a long time. She was a gentle and quiet spirit and will be greatly missed.

Rest In Peace my friend.
