“ We are heartbroken, yet we have a stable, enduring sense of peace because death has not won. It was just three months ago that we lost an uncle on my mom’s side of the family.

My Uncle Stan died yesterday evening surrounded by our family. He was loved so much and he loved us deeply. He was a man you could always count on and you knew he would always show up no matter the need or the time.

The past two weeks were hard on him. He became very sick. We were so grateful for the moments of hope and improvement, but yesterday his body gave out and he was ushered into the eternal presence of our Good Father. What a glorious homecoming and celebration he had.

I am so thankful for the privilege to stand by his bedside with our family as he took his last earthly breath and received his new, perfect, healthy, eternal home where he awaits our joining. As I held his hand and cried with my family, the lyrics of “Sweet Beulah Land” were so loud and clear in my mind that I had to start humming it.

*“I’m kind of homesick for a country
To which I’ve never been before.
No sad goodbyes will there be spoken
For time won’t matter anymore.*

*I’m looking now, just across the river
To where my faith, shall end in sight.
There’s just a few more days to labor.
Then I will take my heavenly flight.*

*Beulah Land- I’m longing for you,
And some day on thee I’ll stand.
There my home shall be eternal.
Beulah Land, sweet Beulah Land.”*

Until eternity... Uncle Stan, We love you so much and will greatly miss you. ❤️
