“ I have the fondest memories as a child growing up on Pinewood Drive. There were two things in the summer that brought all us kids tearing out of our houses. The ice cream man, and Stanley cranking up his riding mower and pulling the wagon behind! He would drive through the neighborhood and anyone who wanted to could jump in and ride. As we got older, he piled of us in the back of his truck for a weekend at the lake! He would tirelessly pull us around that lake until we couldn't stand it any more. I love this family as my own. Tammy, Melissa and Michelle, thank you for sharing your dad will of us in Northview Acres. Those are some of the happiest years of my entire life.

“ Stanley was like a second Dad to the kids in Northview Acres. His family was one of the first true friends our family had when we moved to Lyman from N.C. He will be missed!!!!

“ Although we never met in person, I heard many many wonderful stories from Melissa, you were definitely a fighter, they must be where Melissa gets all her spunk from. You raised all wonderful daughter. I know you are at peace now and with the lord, RIP. Prayers to you Melissa and to rest of family, I know this is letting go is the hardest thing in the world, just know he is not suffering any more, you have wonderful memories and stories to remember him in your hearts forever. We love you and if there is anything we can do please let us know. Prayers and love to all

The loss of a loved one is never easy to bear. I think the sweetest thing of them we can hold on to are those precious memories. the laughs, the rides on the motorcycle, those special moments made just the two of you and then with the whole family. a legacy is created and we don't ever have to let that go....we go with it. I am so sorry for your loss. Travis Peace
