“ Dear Jean.

I was sorry to hear of the death of your mother. I was looking forward to visiting her again this summer when we come to Greenville. However I am thankful that I finally got to know her and I remember the nice visit we had last summer. I shall never forget seeing Martha and Stella that cold rainy January day helping each other into the mortuary for my mother's funeral. It meant so much to me having them there. We will be in Greenville the last weekend in July and I would like to take you out to lunch on that Monday. I will contact you again before we come.

I plan to make a memorial gift to Hospice.

With sympathy,
