“ Jean, Stephanie was my first friend after moving to Greenville. I enjoyed seeing her while she cut my hair, hearing about you along with the rest of her family, and being included among her friends. I met you quite a few times at her apartment, work, and the hospital. I can't comprehend the depth of your grief. You will continually be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Teresa Maines##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Stephanie cut my hair for over 12 years and I considered her a friend. She was truly a special person who was full of life and a fun person to be around! Even though she was recovering from her surgery this summer-she sat in her livingroom and did my hair for my wedding. That memory will always be with me. She had such a sweet spirt! “ I am so sorry for your loss. Stephanie has touch my family in so many ways over the years. I first met her several years ago thru a mutual friend, Kim. Then Stephanie got to know my oldest daughter when she would buy shoes at Houser where my daughter worked. In the last year she made friends with my youngest daughter who sold her makeup at the mall. We all loved her dearly. As special as she was to us, I know she had to have meant the world to her you, her family. She made us all feel like family to her. Your loss has to be seem unbearable. But to have known her is such a blessing. You are in our thoughts and prayers. May God bless and comfort you.##imported-begin##Elaine Horwath##imported-end##
