“ I'll never forget Huey. He was my best friend. We became friends because I was the "responsible one." We always had each other's backs and kept in touch until the end. He said he always imagined we would still be friends when we're old men, living next door to each other and hanging out everyday. I'll always cherish the good times, and I'll always be sad that he's gone. -Noah

“ It still blows my mind that he's gone. He was a very good friend of my family. My father and Stephen (we called him Huey) were very good friends. They worked together for years. When my mom, my sisters and I would come visit my dad during the holidays while we had school off or during the summer time, Huey was around almost all the time. We cooked out, went out and did things, had church services at our house and so much more. I'll never forget the kind, loving, funny man that Huey was and his memories will always be in my heart. Love always -Cheyenne Autumn Surguy and The Surguy Family.

“ Only worked together for a year or so with the Shaw crew up Morgantown.. Even in such a short time I came to realize what a lovely guy Huey was. Good times you will be sadly missed by many...

“ Stephen was an Amazing individual, our journey together was one I'll never forget, He was at one time " My Best friend ". He taught me new visions to life, how to believe in myself and how to be healthy and happy! We had a handsome little bundle of joy on October 20th 2007. Stephen was the happiest man I've ever seen that day. Silas Gage Niel is a beautiful blessing, and I'm honored to be able to keep Stephen's memory alive through Silas! Stephen was a wonderful father and wonderful friend to me as well! I miss talking to him. I'm so very thankful that Silas was able to have one last conversation with his Daddy the 11th of September, I wish that wasn't his last... God has a purpose for everyone, and Stephen meant the world to so many people, he got along with whom ever he crossed paths with. Always a smile on his face and joy in his eyes. Stephen, Silas loves and misses you dearly, until we meet again you're forever in our hearts!! RIP <3
