“ Words cannot express how it hurts to lose a loved one. Greg was only a small child when I married into the Southern family. Even after we lost Bruce I was still considered a part of the family. I never saw Greg that He didn't stop to hug me and chat. He was a sweet, loving, kind and respectful man. May the Lord be with the entire family, but esp watch over Jesse. RIP Greg..."Fly high and tell all our loved ones I said Hi."

Which one to share. Aaron was so young. We all were young. You were my favorite friend of Jasons ok the only friend of Jasons that I liked an then grow to love. I remember eating Sunday dinner at your mama's house. I remember how much love I felt in that house. I remember coloring with Aaron while you an Jay hung out. Like Debbie said I know you an Jason having a great reunion
Love you

“ I have few words. My heart aches for all of those that knew and loved Greg. What a wonderful man that I was grateful to finally get to meet only at my precious husbands memorial service. Rest In Peace brother, you deserve it! I know you and Jay are laughing and high fiving the other all while looking down on all of us and smiling! I will keep the family in my prayers, especially in the days to come. Blessings always and Gods grace will get you through in the days ahead.
