“ Stewart was one of a kind! He was a friend, co-worker, jokester, and quick witted with a great personality! If you spent any time with Stewart you knew that he loved his wife and his family dearly. He will be missed by so many including myself.
To the family, I'm so sorry for your loss and will be praying for you all in the weeks and months to come as you try to navigate through this difficult time.

“ Stewart was my funniest uncle without a doubt. He would always bring a funny story to the dinner table or family gatherings. The silent pause will now and forever be remembered waiting for Stewart to chime in with his quick witted jokes or stories. We will miss him dearly, but know he is now playing golf or watching a Tennessee Volunteer's game with Jesus.

“ Stewart was a very dedicated and creative design engineer. I had the pleasure and privilege of working with Stewart for 30 years at Bommer Industries in Landrum. Stewart was responsible for several important patents for Bommer. He was our company representative for the Builders Hardware Manufacturers Association standards committees and as such was well known and respected by many within the hardware industry for his detailed technical hinge knowledge. He was also a dedicated fan of the Tennessee Volunteers which as an Auburn fan I respected. Only about 6 weeks ago during the college baseball championship game, we were both enjoying texting back and forth as the game progressed as Tennessee won. I will miss being able to do that with him in the future and also his sense of humor and dry wit.

“ Stewart was a man of amazing qualities, and every time Stewart would try to deny it but that only showed the humble man that was Stewart. Stewart would always refer to me warmly as his job mentor, but to me and everyone around him, Stewart was a life mentor, a man of wisdom and kindness. I will miss you deeply, my friend. My condolences to Yongsuk and Lisa, I'm sorry for your loss.

“ Stewart was one of the kindest men I've had the pleasure to know. Ironically he also had a wicked sense of humor too. That part will be the black hole in our office forever more. Lisa and Youngsa - I am terribly sorry for the loss you are feeling. But I know that time will heal your wounds and make you whole again. God Bless - Todd S
