Tribute Wall

“ I have missed Mrs. Bedenbaugh for some time at church, since she has been in the nursing home. She always had a smile, a hug, and a compliment for me every time she saw me; she knew how to make people feel special. The saying that you remember "how people made you feel" truly applied to her, and I always felt loved in her presence. She rejoiced in her friends and family, and loved coming to church. She leaves a beautiful, loving family and they are truly a testament to the Christian, kind, and gracious lady that she was. Reverend Bedenbaugh loved a special woman, one worthy of his love and generous, gracious heart. Mickey and I love you all and are praying for you during this time. I will continue to think about and miss her in the coming days, and will remember her especially when I'm at church. Take care of each other and God bless,
