“ Dear Uncle Eddie; David; Michael and Hillary; Andy; Matthew and Erika; and sweet Ella, Jameson and Holiday...our hearts are breaking with you at the loss of your beautiful wife/mom/grandma, and our beautiful aunt. We wish so much we could be there right now, not only to grieve alongside you, but also to celebrate her life with you. I (Lisa) am so very grateful to have lived close enough to know Aunt Sylvia while growing up, and again in my adult years...in fact, did you know she is really the one who named Pierce before he was born 17 years ago? :-) You have been in our thoughts and prayers especially over the past year, and will remain close to our hearts now as you walk through this grieving process. Love you lots, Lisa (and Paul, Heidi, Hannah, and Pierce)

“ I met Sylvia my freshman year at Tabor. Those first weeks and months at a new place can be intimidating, isolating, and lonely. Thankfully I was on the Soccer team and was able to play with Sylvia's sons. Sylvia became a friendly face and established another connection when I wasn't with the rest of the team. She helped make Tabor feel a little bit more like home. I'm looking forward to repeating that experience in heaven.

“ I remember Sylvia from the Tabor years. I didn't know her well back then, but now wish our paths would have crossed more as I know she would have been a friend to cherish. I most remembered when Eddie and Sylvia were married that they were so well suited. So many wonderful memories for this precious family as they now have to releases her, but never in their hearts. Look forward to a friendship not to long down the road where there can be no interruptions....

“ I adored my beautiful Aunt Sylvia! I have many cherished memories of her when I was young. She took me on outings to downtown St Catharines, to the movies, and Diana Sweets. We would be walking downtown and cars were honking and guys waving because she was so incredibly beautiful. Not only was she beautiful on the outside but on the inside as well. I know that her family adored her and will miss her terribly. Such a sad day! Love and prayers to her family!

I don't know if my first comment stayed, so i am trying again. I was saddened to hear of Sylvia's passing. May you find comfort in knowing that she is with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May you feel the presence of God's loving arms around you and in the future and you mourn her loss. We always enjoyed all of you as neighbors.

Heartbroken - Sylvia was born on a Friday. My thoughts go back in time to 73 Pleasant Ave here in St Catharines & the girl on the porch laying in a hammock. All most failed in grade six @ Memorial School because of the hue of that shade of blue -couldn,t take my eyes off her. The meaning of the name Sylvia is "of the forest - she who enchants all the creatures of the forest" I know this because she was my first love as young as we were. Sylvia was "epiphany"with that you can be sure. I to live on an Adam St - here in St Catharines, Hotel Dieu Hospital now gone & yet she will always be remembered as the kindest-the sweetest -most beautiful soul that I was fortunate to call - my friend. Last time we spoke I - told her of Machu Picchu & we discussed it,s marvel. Sylvia,s family was also a marvel & blessed to the heavens - celebrate her life accomplishment-with that same smile. Just maybe it was again fitting that she passed on a Friday. God blessed her beautiful family-God Bless Sylvia
