“ John, Jessica and Jakey - we are so saddened at the passing of your wife and mother Tammy. You will certainly be in our prayers as you grieve. Find comfort and peace in the knowledge that Tammy was healed in an instant - and she is safe in the arms of her savior now. I know you grieve her loss, but in time you will come to think more on the beauty that was her life. God Bless you all.

“ Dearest Nancy, Roy, John, Jessica, Jacob, and Grandmother Parris,
Our hearts are broken for you over the loss of your beautiful Tammy and our prayer is that God will comfort you as you remember that Tammy is now in the everlasting arms of the one who created her for eternity.
We remember the first time we met Tammy at your home in Northern Virginia. She was lovely then, even more gorgeous on her wedding day, but most beautiful in the years she had her children. We know because we were at her wedding and have kept every Christmas picture card you have sent us since.
1 Cor. 2:9 is God's promise to Tammy:
"Eye has not seen, ear has not heard, nor can the mind comprehend what God has in store for those who love Him"
Loving you always,

“ Dear Sonny, Nancy and family,
Please know that you all are in our thoughts and prayers and have been since Kipp told us yesterday. May God grant you strength as only He can during times like this. Dear cousin, you and your family have certainly had more than your share of pain but God's grace is still sufficient. We love you all.
