“ Dear Lynn & Family:
Our heartfelt sympathy to you in the loss of your son. Our prayer is God will wrap His loving arms around you to comfort you and may His mercy and grace give you the strength and peace you need during this sad time. May your many memories keep Terry close to your heart and we can rejoice in God's promise that we will see our loved ones again in Heaven with Him. Oh what a day that will be! May God bless and sustain each of you. Sent with our love and prayers, Clyde & Linda

“ I am deeply saddened by hearing of the loss of my cousin Terry Lynn Kennemore. You were taken too young from this earth. We miss you & pray the Lord is holding your family in His arms, comforting them. & May they find God's peace in this. Lynn do know that you are being held up by the many prayers we are offering up to our Lord at this time. I know that the loss of a child is so different from the loss of a spouse. I pray that God is holding you up, letting you know He is there. These next months & years, as many different occasions come up, Terry will spring to mind, fill your mind of the happy times & the special times you shared with Terry. With Dad being in the military, we did not make it home as much as we would have liked. Mother (Betty Jean Goodson Pearson) (Bet) instilled in us a deep sense of love & caring for our relatives. Our thoughts & prayers are with you. love & prayers, phyllis pearson & family

“ I'm so missing my precious nephew, Terry, today. His passing was a painful shock! As for me he was taken way before his time. Leaving his young sweet daughter and a saddened family behind. Terry was so special to me because of his generous nature... always willing to help me at any time... especially on Christmas Eve when he helped Santa and me with Caitlin's toys! And I had to ask for help with that old 80's VCR, he could set it in a jiffy & I never did figure it out! I remember him as a baby in his walker peeking through the French door curtains to see what I was doing in the living room with my boyfriend! I would say "Mama, Terry's watching me!" I remember him playing baseball in our backyard with my Mama, his Nanny! She loved that little fellow so much, as she did all her grandchildren. He was a cousin and friend to Caitlin. He spoke of one time she was at their house staying for a while one day (don't remember where I was), but he told her to stop doing something she was up to and it made her cry... then he felt awful and wanted to cry, too, because he had hurt her feelings! Special nephew. Special man. I will miss him dearly... and all his many cars and golf clubs. He got a hole-in-one trophy from Greer Country Club! Wow, that thrilled him. I loved him. Still do. I will miss him so. Believe he's joyful in Heaven with his Mama, Nanny and Papa and many other family members. And I will see him again.

Aunt Patti Kennemore
