“ Jason, it seems like yesterday that we were hanging out and seeing what kind of trouble we could get into. We might have went our own way and not spent as much time together as we used to but I will always think of you like my brother instead of my cousin. I cherish all of the memories that we had growing up and I cant wait to see you again. I love you and I miss you.##imported-begin##Kevin Lawson##imported-end##

“ Dear Terry,

Jason brought such sunshine to everything he did! My sister Jenna and I thought the world of him. If we were feeling down, he could ALWAYS make us laugh. He will be sorely missed until we see him again in Heaven. I am thinking of you and your family, and you are in my prayers. I am truly sorry.

“ Judy & Terry,

Last time I saw Jason, he was just a baby. I wish we had kept in closer touch over the years. Reading through the other condolences I missed out on knowing quite a man! I feel for the both of you and wish I could be there for you in person, but please know my heart & prayers are with you as sure as GOD is with you!

I saw the picture of Jason. He's very handsome, but what else would he be with such beautiful parents! I probably would not have known if Kelly hadn't told me.

My Mom passed (04/21/07) so I sort of know the void you feel. I imagine it would be worse to lose a child because children lose parents...parents shouldn't lose a child!

Just trust in the LORD and he'll help you through. Again, my condolences for your loss, and my heart & prayers are with you.

You have my e-mail now, so if you feel like talking or if there's anything I can do, please feel free to let me know.

I LOVE YOU BOTH

FROM A LONG

AGO FRIEND!!!

“ Carolyn & Terry;

I am so sorry for your loss. I know that Jason is now in God's presence, as he was a terrific grandson and son to be very proud of. Mom has seen Jason grow up over the years to a well respected young man. I met him again about four years ago in dealing with his taxes. I remember when Terry brought him to Moms to get Terry's taxes done he was always well mannered and a personalble young man even as a child. He will sadly be missed. I have no doubt that he made a lasting impression on everyone he came in contact with. For I will remeber his smile and he was always happy whenever I saw him be it at work, at Walmart or at the tax office. Judy and Terry you had a lasting impression on Jason and he was a true gem! He is now one of God's special agels who will guide his son from above. I am so sorry for you loss and know that our prayers and thoughts are with all of you. If we can do anything please don't hesitate to let us know.

Respectfully,

Charlene and Loretta Wilson,

“ Judy, I wish I could give you my condolences in person, however I will not be able to make it back to SC. I really wish I had taken the time to see Jason the last time I was in Landrum. I had been wanting to catch up with him for several years and will always regret missing my opportunity.

Much love, Michelle##imported-begin##Michelle

“ Jason, it seems like only yesterday that I met you, in that HUGE coincidence of a way. We were in a big circle of friends, that were friends with eachother and that caused a lot of drama. But in the end everything was okay. We had so many good times, good laughs, and I will never forget them. I know you're in a better place now & I hope you will watch over every single one of us. Matt misses you a lot too, he was very upset about this, but just keep him in your heart okay? I know we'll see you again someday, but you take care. And save us all a place in heaven right beside you. You were always so funny, cracking jokes left & right. Riding to the bridge, riding around in the back of your truck at all hours of the night, a lot of good times, inside jokes & memories none of us will ever forget. It's hard not seeing you here with us anymore, but we will NEVER forget you! We miss & love you Jason##imported-begin##Miranda Johnson##imported-end##

“ Jason,

You were the only friend I ever had whom I could completely trust and who had true dignity, honor, and respect despite the sad times in your life. I will never forget your kindness and friendship you showed me when I needed it most. I will always be grateful to the Lord God for sending you to this Earth and your having been a part of my life. I will miss you greatly and will only find comfort in knowing that you are now in the loving arms of our Lord. Heaven is a better place today because you are there; I just pray that those of us you left behind can find comfort and peace despite the great void left in our hearts. Thank you for being my friend - I love you, Jason.##imported-begin##Jeff Wellmon##imported-end##

“ Judy,

I am so sorry for your loss. I live in Colorado now and I will not be able to make it home. I really cant belive that this happened to Jason. Hannah told me she saw him at work and I was looking forward to seeing him when I came home again. Congratulations on being a Grandma soon.

Love,
