“ *Stacie,
I am so sorry to hear about your mom. I know that I came to know Christ due to you asking me to go to Taylors First Baptist with you and your mom taking me to church. The two of you taking the time to ask and drive me to church meant more to me than you will ever know. Know that I am praying for you during this time.*

*In Christ,

“ I know that this is a difficult time for all of you. Know that your family is in my prayers as well as those of many others who knew your mother. I have fond memories of being picked up for vacation bible school by your mother and riding in the back seat of your Pontiac. Also I remember seeing her in the church choir on Sunday mornings as I grew up and into my adult years.
