“ Aunt Thelma was the last living sibling of my mother Anna L Crews. I have fond memories of visiting her and her husband Uncle Ed when I was young. In those days, Judy and I would play outside while the adults would sit in their back yard under the shade of the large oak tree, and just have PLAIN AND SIMPLE FUN!! She was a loving mother wife and Aunt. My fondest memory is when we all went to Detroit Michigan in their new 1956 Chevrolet in July (without air conditioning). Judy knows the rest of the story. Aunt Thelma, we loved you very much. Judy, you and your family will be in our prayers.
