“ My father, Guy M. Snow, Jr., chose Thelma to be with for the last years of his life, and he chose well. She was a hard worker, enjoyed growing flowers, and was a fantastic southern cook. Whenever we visited, we knew she would fix some of our favorite foods, like her famous chicken pot pie, candied sweet potatoes, and/or homemade fluffy biscuits! She and my father were very active members of Sharon Methodist Church. Condolences to George, McCree, David, and the rest of her many relatives.
