“ We are so sorry to hear about Thomas. I do remember how much he enjoyed singing. He was in a quartet as my Dad (Bryan Fowler, Thomas's uncle) was. I always enjoyed talking with him. The subject was usually singing. I would talk about the barbershop singings in Spartanburg and the all night singings at the auditorium. I think about a story that Uncle Doris used to tell at the Fowler Christmas gatherings. He said that him and Aunt Gin could not sleep at all if they had caffeinated coffee before bed. Uncle Cyrus decided to play a trick on them and put caffeinated coffee in a Sanka decaffeinated can. They all had coffee that evening. Uncle Cyrus asked Uncle Doris the next morning how they slept that night. He said that they slept like babies. I will always remember that story. Thomas will be missed by us all. We will continue to keep all the family in our thoughts and prayers. With deepest sympathy, Ike and Laura Fowler, Moore, S.C.

Thank you for your comments and your thoughts and prayers. I remember very well the stories that daddy talked about going what they always called "going to the country". His favorite was talking about Bryan and his funny jokes and happenings. I remember a record your dad had and they would laugh and laugh about it. Bryan had daddy and mother to go to a singing at his church. He never forgot it and just loved the singing. Until he had to leave his home, he looked at this program that had beautiful singing with no music. He would always call me in there(as I was there helping them a lot) to listen saying that sounds like Bryan's church. I also remember the stories about the caffeinated coffee. So funny. I remember going to, I think Brady's house, when I was just a little girl and they would all gather around and sing. I loved to hear them sing. My brothers and myself could tell you many stories we have heard and experienced from "the country". We have a lot of precious memories. So glad to hear from you.

wow! Daddy ask me all the time if you and the others that sang in quartet were still alive. He had the quartet's picture on his side table that he picked up and looked at all the time. When we visited him he would always show us the picture and ask if they are still alive. He was at The Cottages at Brushy Creek for the last 2 1/2 years. He had a history of falling because he was not real stable on his feet. Refused to use walker as he said "they will think I'm old". His last fall caused him to break his hip. His heart was too weak and could not do surgery. They think he developed a blood clot that caused his death. Thank you for your thoughts and prayers. I am so thrilled to hear from you.
