“ Its hard to find the right words, but I want you to know we are thinking of all of you constantly, and love and miss you. I wish we could be there for you at this time of shock and loss. We love and miss Tim and always will, until it is our time to join him in heaven. Then all will be perfect, and he is perfect now in a perfect place! I know all of you are hurting, especially since this was a traumatic ending on earth for Tim, but I feel sure he had a special angel who came and took him on a wonderful journey to heaven. Then, he was with Jesus, his parents, grandparents, and others he missed, and will live a perfect life throughout eternity. Tim had a beautiful smile, and around us was always happy, which resonated into us. It was contagious! He and little Troy were absolutely adorable together, and Tim loved his baby so much! Know that God will never leave you, but will sustain you, and help you through this time! And will carry you, as the poem says, "when you saw only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you!" Please do not be afraid to grieve naturally for yourselves, and remember that whatever you feel, or how you react is okay! No two people grieve the same; its very personal, and that's how it should be. You have probably already, and definitely will as time goes on, go through a lot of different stages of grief, and that's natural, also! Just keep "looking up", and that will help you cope. God will help you through this transition, and we will always have wonderful, special memories of our loved one, Tim! Know I am there in love and spirit, and please do not hesitate to call, write, or anything. I love each and every one of you! Aunt Kerry and Uncle Tony
