“ Tim was such a sweet and outgoing person. When I was little he always made me feel so welcome when I would come over to his house to stay. He would always give me a wink:0) I am so thankful that we will get to see him again one day in Heaven.##imported-begin##Stephanie Tumblin##imported-end##

“ Jerry & Carolyn - I just wanted to let you know that I will be praying for your family. I know that it must have been so hard for you to say goodbye to Tim, but praise God it was only "see you later". Tim is with the Lord waiting on the day that you will all be together again forever. May your memories bring you comfort until that day. I can remember being in Ann & Arnolds wedding with Tim, my aunt Linda reminded me today that Granddaddy Vickery tried to convince me that I was married to Tim since we were both at the altar too. Lean on the Lord and your family and friends to help you through this time.
Take comfort knowing that you always did everything you could for Tim, and I believe he was aware of that. The service and music were wonderful, I am so thankful I was able to be there.

“ Carolyn and Family, I only got to know Tim after he came to piedmont living center. Still, He touched my heart deeply. That sweet little smile communicated lots without saying a word. Sometimes,he would kick at me playfully, and I would say "Do you love me, Tim"? And he would always, ever so subtly, shake his head no. I hope he was playing. He will be sorely missed by many. My deepest sympathies. Dawn Howard###imported-begin###Dawn Howard###imported-end##

“ Tim was one of those rare individuals that left a lasting impression on people. He was not at all self absorbed, he consistently let others know that he cared by a smile, kind word or deed. When we were growing up he always made me feel very welcomed even thou I was a younger cousin. I remember him even allowing me to accompany him on dates.

After the accident he still shared smiles and made others feel special. I am sad that we want be able to see him smiling here, but so happy that he is in the presence of his Savior. He has been completely made whole and is loving life.

I am thankful that through Christ we will see Tim in Heaven.

“ To Tim's Family:

I was so saddened to hear about Tim's passing. He has been such a part of life at Piedmont. During my time there, I looked forward to seeing him smile when I came around the corner. Now, he's really smiling, and has been made whole again.

My prayers are with you all in the coming days.

“ My heart goes out to you, Jerry & Carolyn. I know that you loved Tim so very much and cared so wonderfully for him over these past 25+ years since his accident. I'm not sure you remember me, but I used to come and sit some in ICU and also came to visit Tim at your home a few times. He was fortunate to have such caring parents and I believe he knew that you were there for him. My heart broke when I saw that he had passed away, but at the same time I can rejoice knowing that he is whole again and no longer having any pain or suffering. Your memories of him will live on in your hearts and God will give you the courage and strength to go on with your lives. You will be in my prayers.##imported-begin##Rhonda Connor Smith Waldrop##imported-end##
