“ Although the time has been much to short we are thankful we had the chance to know Tim. We have been able to create such good memories and it has made our lives that much better.. He will be greatly missed by us and all who were lucky enough to come to know him. He was a smart, funny, kind, caring friend and our hearts break along with his family and other friends.

“ Saddened by Tims passing and condolences to his wife and family. Tim was a childhood neighbor and friend. Memories of camping out in his backyard and playing in the coolest fort ever built in the woods nearby. So long Tim.

“ I first met Tim in Bowling Green Kentucky while working. It was my first job. Tim took me in his corner and welcomed me to come to him with any difficulties that may arise. Tim's company provided much needed calm in a hectic environment. He was more than just there. He was able to shed light on more than the work at hand and I thank him for that. God Bless.
