Tim was my cousin. His mother, Willie Belle, was my dad, Richard Moore's sister. I remember going up to Aunt Willie Belle and Uncle Sam's house on County Line Road when we lived right down the hill as a child. I remember Aunt Willie Belle taking care of Tim when he had that accident. He was always so kind and a gentle soul. We are so sorry that we are unable to attend the ceremony for Tim. Our prayers are with the rest of the family. I feel for the brothers and sisters and Sam. We just lost my oldest sister, Cindy, back in September. We know the difficulty in dealing with a SUDDEN loss. Prayers and love.

“ My dear brother in heaven. So much time has passed with words unspoken. I know you are in a better place with our eternal father. Though your day came up to go home beyond our worldly expectations. I am not angry toward our heavenly father because he holds all the answers and I should not ask why. You are rejoicing with TI, Mom, Charlie and grandparents, aunts and uncles, etc. We have great memories of you. I have known you for almost 61 years as a brother, you are to many as husband, father, brother, uncle, cousin, papa and friend. You always were a humble giant. Always had kind words, never a grumble, if you had a dislike you kept it to yourself. As a child I have many memories of your love for fishing. You had rather fish than eat. I remember the time you ate so many hotdogs and got sick. Then the time you ate more butter and tomato biscuits than any of us. Your stature was deemed after John Wayne "The Duke". I know you remember of all the times we dressed western and you always had the Duke stand going on. You ever wonder why we were cowboys and cowgirl. It could have been from the love of Roy Rogers. Your accomplishments in life were with greatness. You cared for your wife who suffered from dementia for way to long. You never complained and never left her side. A true Gentle Giant. You leave behind many family members that will have your legacy in their hearts and minds forever. I am thankful that God gave me a brother like you.

Hugs, kisses and never-ending love: your sister Dale

“ Tim was always kind to me. Even though I am an ex sister in law he told me not long ago I'm still family. I was very touched by that simple gesture. My prayers will be with you all. I hope you can find comfort that he now has reunited with TI.
