

Tom Doggett

January 19, 1937 - April 4, 2015

Thomas Alexander Doggett, 78, of 109 Stonehenge Court, died April 4, 2015 at his home.

A native of Greenville County, son of the late Walter Alexander and Rosanna Marsh Doggett, he was a retired employee of NCR and Plus Inc., and a US Air Force Korean War Veteran. Tom's love and devotion for his God and Savior was evidenced in his love for his family, friends and everyone he met. Surviving are his wife, Annette Houston Doggett of the home; one daughter and son-in-law, Donna and Brett Byers of Conyers, GA and three grandchildren, Noel Byers, Alex Kelly and Charlie Byers.

Mr. Doggett was predeceased by one daughter, Theresa Kelly and one sister, Ina Mae Herring.

Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m. Wednesday at Wood Mortuary conducted by Rev. Eddie Herring, Chaplain Jack Dorn, and Dr. Robert Chrisman.

Interment will be 12:00 p.m. Thursday at Stephens Memorial Gardens, Toccoa, GA.

Visitation will be held 1:00-2:00 p.m. Wednesday and after the service at Wood Mortuary.

The family is at the home.

Memorials may be made to Eric and Kimberly Apel, missionary to Nairobi, Acct. #51678, made payable to Serge, Donations Processing Center, P.O. Box 1244, Albert Lea, MN, 56007-1244.

“ *Mr. Doggett was a true representation of the military, one I will remember whose light shined anytime I saw him. He came into the Center regularly and when conversing with him he always mentioned his wife whom you could tell he love dearly and believed in. He was a joy to service and I believe he spreaded joy wherever he gave service likewise. He had a story to tell or share at every opportunity to enlighten you.
We all here at SC Works were stunned to hear of his passing and send our sincere heart-felt sympathy to his wife and family members. May God Bless and Keep You!*

“ I worked with Tom at Plus for a few years, and he helped me out here at my business as well. I'll miss him saying "Super Service" and other witty things.

God bless him and his family!
