“ The one thing that sticks out in my mind the most is when tiny took my son Fate to the circus with his son. Turns out my son was deathly afraid of clowns, I had no idea. I don't think he every forgave me for that every time I wud see him he wud bring that up. Everything happens for a reason, even though it sucks right now it might detrimental to the out come of our future. Tiny u ain't completely gone your daughter is dug out your butt. I know u was a good dude cause my sister loves you & levi to this day.....RIP TINY

“ I am so shocked to hear this. Tommy loved his kids and wife beyond words. He would always bring Emma in late to school holding her, and would tell us they had been snuggling watching cartoons. The bond he and that little sweet little Daddy's girl had was priceless!!! I am praying for Rebekah, Levi, Emmma and the rest of the family!

Tommy sure loved his wife and kids. Snuggling was their favorite thing to do. Emma would be late for pre-school because she was snuggling with her daddy. I'm so thankful they had that special time together. Prayers to all this wonderful and loving family. Karen Hooper

“ Tj was a wonderful person. We were cousins and friends. I can remember playing together in the woods with BB guns when were kids, and going to his pee wee football banquet together. But I will never forget a picture that was taken of him standing alone and crying when my sister past away! Tj was a great dad to his two children, making memories to last a lifetime. Tj you will be forever missed. Love Your Cousin Tomi (Cordle) Black.
