“ Tommy was "that guy" in the neighborhood. Everybody knew him and he knew everybody. Always a greeting and a smile, a story, a helpful gesture, or a good deed to share, That was Tommy personified.

Tommy looked out for the neighborhood, the first to notice anything askew. Keeping a watchful eye if you were away, pulling in the trash cans if you were running late. If you were out working in the yard on a hot summer day, Tommy would surely come by with a bottle of water or tea. It was not uncommon for him to come over with a box of treats for the pets or a basket of fresh fruit.

As do many of our elderly, Tommy loved to regale his life experiences. Many tales working for the railroad and serving in the military. For well over a decade we been a part of Tommy's neighborhood. Tommy was a good man and he will be remembered and missed by many.

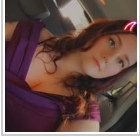

May God bless you and keep you, dear man. Rest in peace.
