“ Life is fleeting, kind, hard, and simple all at the same time. But in times when life seems to hit you the hardest, you find it difficult to understand why. Then you begin to search for reasons why these things happen. Then comes the question what could I have done to prevent it. Simple answer is there is no answer other than that's life. So trust in the Lord to get thru those days of Why? And he will say believe in me and I will give you everlasting Life. And that is the answer!!!! Tommy thank you for all you done for me now take your rest my friend. RIP Tommy!!!!

“ I met Tommy on his first day of work at Duke Power in Simpsonville. He was a company man, getting it done. Keeping his team safe. Making the customer happy as you can at a power company.

He was a good and loyal friend to me Over the that next 37 years. Good friends those who hang with you ... they are hard to find and harder to keep - impossible to ever replace.

Some of you know by personal experience Tommy was a very generous guy to people around him. With his time and money. I know he loved his family with all his heart, because he told me - we actually talked for hours at a time. He loved Cindy all the kids, Grandkids and Ms Jewel, nephews and nieces his brothers.

I'm completely heart broken for my own loss - heart broken for the families loss - and anyone who would just eat lunch, or sit the deck and talk to Tommy. We talked for hours sometimes. Those are the ones who are going to truly miss Tommy.

Sorry for the tying on the iPhone my bad...

“ God blessed me to know Brittney Fowler and that thru her I would come to know her father, Tommy. One of my favorite things to do was sit in his living room on Saturday nights with he and his daughter just laughing and carrying on. If I could do some things over, I'd do that more often. Tommy Fowler made an impact on me. I am the man I am today because Tommy Fowler encouraged me to be. He helped me tremendously see my own value and trust God would not let me down if I only I would be a good man. I'll cherish the moments we shared together for the rest of my life and be blessed to see him again in heaven. Thank God for that blessed assurance, that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Tommy Fowler is with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and is better now for it. I pray God will continue to touch his family and greatly comfort them through this time of mourning.
