“ Tommy will always be remembered to our family as a giving person with a heart as big as Texas. He played a major part by supporting my children in activities throughout their school days. He will truly be missed. To his family, May God cradle each of you in his arms and comfort you during this time. Please know that you are in our thoughts & prayers. ~Sheila-Ann~###imported-begin##Sheila-Ann Bomar Ross###imported-end##

“ To everyone that loved Tommy, I am so sorry to hear of his passing. He was such a joy and had a smile that was like no other. I met Tommy when he and I both were youth of Hillcrest Baptist Church. Then some years later were again members of Riverside Baptist Church. Funny how people lives cross and the minutes fade to years. Tommy was a Joy and I am thankful to have called him friend.
