“ I am learning of Tony's death 6 yrs later. I hope that his girls Tori and Taylor read this as I am saddened by this news. My heart aches as Taylor lost her mom and dad within months of each other. He will be missed as my "mega man" friend always. Love to his children.##imported-begin##Melody Raines Cook##imported-end##

“ We recently learned of Tony's death and were saddened to hear the news. Tony had many friends at MCI. He was a great guy to work with. He was very smart, successful, respectful, always with a smile and always nice to everyone he met. He surpassed all sales goals - he was always 1000% to plan. Our branch received a lot of recognition as a result of his efforts. We enjoyed working with him. We are truly sorry to hear of his death. We pray that God comforts his children and family during this time.
With our deepest sympathy,

“ Jayne, Jerry and family...

My sister just told me today that she saw your son's obituary a few weeks ago. I am so sorry to hear of this great loss. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time. Parents shouldn't lose their children, but it has become a way of life these days. Please know I am thinking of you.##imported-begin##Cathy Mazzaro##imported-end##

“ I'll always remember Tony Turner for his courage an an entrepreneur. Tony accomplished more than most because he dared. His superior business skills never overshadowed his nature as a gentleman. Competitor or partner I never questioned his integrity. He was solid.
We saw less of each other as the years passed but whenever we met again it was like time never ticked.
I liked to tell him that he had more "cool" in his little finger than anybody else had in their whole body...just to watch him TRY to hold back that big smile.....

So that is how I am going to remember you Mr.Anthony Scott Turner...##imported-begin##Barney Shorter##imported-end##

“ Judson, Hilda sent me an email about your son's passing. I am so sorry for your loss. We're not supposed to outlive our children because the pain seems to be something more than we can bear.

I pray God will bless you and Margo and your entire family as you go through these next few weeks. I will be praying for you especially today during the service.

You may not know, but my husband is a minister and recently one of the funeral home directors was sharing with us that it is a fact now that in the United States and worldwide more parents are burying their children than children burying their parents. I don't know why but I'm hoping they're just too good for this world and God needs them in His.

Hope to see you and Margo before too long. Your son was three months younger than my oldest, to whom I am very close, and I can't imagine how my life would be changed. Know that we are supporting you with our prayers through your difficult time.##imported-begin##Marsha Gosnell Monroe##imported-end##

“ Jayne and Jerry,
Please know that you are in our prayers and hope that God reveals to you soon, his plan in the lives of his children and family in this time of great loss. You gave us a place to be married in "Holy Matrimony", I know God will give your son a place of honor as he will us all when our time is revealed. God Bless You and comfort you in all your days to come. In Christ!
