

Vaudy Forrester

September 20, 1912 - January 13, 2010

Heading: Vaudy Springfield Forrester

Dateline: Greer

Mama was born September 20, 1912 daughter of the late William Henry and Carrie Springfield. She was married to our daddy, the late Baylis Forrester for 50 years.

She was an inspiration to all who were fortunate enough to have known her. She will be missed. She carries with her the love of her family and it is with that love we bid her farewell.

Survived by five daughters and sons-in-law, Bonnie and Cecil Brewer, Zelma and J.R. Howell, Wilma and Kenneth Clayton, Brenda and Gerald Lockhart, and Betty Thomas; three sons and daughters-in-law, Othell and Jean, Dorrance and Mary, and Frankie and Pat Forrester; twenty-three grandchildren, forty-one great-grandchildren, and twelve great-great-grandchildren.

She was predeceased by a brother, Lushion Springfield, a sister, Bertie Mahaffey, grandson, Billy Rhodes, great-grandson, Nelson Turner, daughter-in-law, Carolyn Forrester, sons-in-law, James Rhodes and Jim Rodgers, and a grandson-in-law, Dudley Martin.

We express our thanks to all at NHC Healthcare, Greenville, we are especially grateful to all who attended to her needs on Unit 2.

Graveside services will be held 2:00 p.m. Friday at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church Cemetery.

Visitation will be held 12:00-1:30 p.m. Friday at The Wood Mortuary.

The families are at their respective homes.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

“ My husband is Alan Bright. We would like to express our sympathy in your loss. Alan has fond memories of Mrs. Forrester. He remembers her good cooking. He was telling me last night of the Real "BUTTER " pound cake she made. Remembering you all in prayer.##imported-begin##gail bright##imported-end##
