“ Velma and my grandmother were related but also the best of friends; fishing buddies; lunch buddies at Jewel's store; and sisters in Christ. I'm sure they are having a reunion in heaven and if there is a pond close by, they are fishing!
Velma was such a sweetheart and will be missed!!!❤️

“ i had the pleasure of working with Velma at P.S.G.I enjoyed training her,especially when she mastered an objective.At times I drove her van and she would say Brenda lets get our poles and go fishing.I would say , what are they going to say when we are hours late coming to work.She would say we tell em we broke down.Then ,quickly she would say that would be a lie. I guess we just have to go to work.I could share so many funnies but I guess they are mine to look back on and smile. My condolences to all the family. Sincerely, Brenda Forrester Young

“ As Aunt Velma now joins her parents, sisters/brothers, three nephews, and countless other relatives & friends in heaven, we all rejoice that she is at complete peace and fully healed. Velmer "fought the good fight" and all the while was dearly loved by her biological family as well as her Mt Lebanon family. We all will miss her razor sharp memory, keen wit and yes, her downright stubbornness. Love ya Velma!
