“ Dear Mullinax Family.
How I loved your mom and daddy! I remember many a summer morning riding my bike down to your house or playing in the creek that separated our houses, and your folks were always thrilled to see us. And, when my mom and daddy were ill, your folks were the first to make sure they were there helping. What a love story. To depart this world only hours apart. It is still sad and you will miss them so much. Blessings to each of you and much love. Kathy Aughtry Randall.##imported-begin##Kathy Aughtry Randall##imported-end##

“ Uncle Horace and Aunt Ginger were a loving and caring couple. I am very sad that they are no longer with us, but it is fitting they left this earth together. Johnny, Eric and Mo, you can be comforted by the fact that your parents were loving and inspiring people. Ginger was always so wonderful to my mother and all the Brannon Clan.

“ Dear Mullinax sons, your loss is everyone's loss, for we loved your parents as though they were ours. They always sat behind us in church, and Ginny never failed to ask about our daughter Ashley. So when Ash finally got married last year, they were one of the few I sent an announcement to. I have written a short tribute to them on my website dailycommunity@att.net. (see below) They will always be a part of this community and the lives they touched. Pat Kingsmore

What a fitting end to a very beautiful love story. When I taught Myra's SS class a few times, Ginny always excused herself a few minutes early to go home to get Horace. Who knew that she would be doing the same thing today? I can think of no more measure of love that God could give than sending Ginny one more time to pick up her beloved Horace so that they could walk to eternity together. Don't be sad. Be joyful for God's amazing grace.

Thought: O give thanks to the Lord for He is good, for His steadfast love endures forever. Psalms 106:1###imported-begin###Patricia Kingsmore###imported-end##

*It is easy to tell you how much I loved your mom and dad. They were special in my life. Ya'll are very fortunate to have wonderful parents that really loved everybody. I'm glad I had a chance to know them and visit them from time to time. God blessed you with wonderful parents and now you can carry on their parenting, which I'm sure you have already done.
