“ I have fond memories of Tom at the fire department many yrs. ago. He was a special person. I remember all of us wives getting together to support the firemen. I personally admire and praise you for all that you did for Tom. The wives sometimes get forgotten, but they are the ones that keeps the family going. Know that I am thinking of you.

“ Uncle Tom and aunt Gail were like my second parents. I spent a lot of time at their house when I was young. He was a strong, hard working man but also kind and generous. He was the kind of man that if you knew him, then he was your friend. He will be missed.
