“ I will deeply miss my uncle Bill. He was one of those wise men you grow up wanting to be like. I will always hold close to my heart the times we shared and the things he taught me. Waldrop children, I am deeply sorry for the pain your loss inflicts, but carry on proudly as your truly fine parents certainly blessed your lives.

Your cousin,

“ Waldrop children, Margaret and Bob:
Sorry to have read of Bill's death.
Although it has been many years since I had seen him I still have fond memories of knowing him in Taylors.
Also I don't think I've seen Greg since I coached him in baseball at Northwood Little League.
You have my deepest sympathy and may God bless each of you.###imported-begin###Jim Wilson###imported-end##

“ Margaret, Bob, Alex, Mike, Greg and Leslie,

I was sorry to hear about Bill's death. My family lived next door to you when we lived on North Street in Taylors. I remember when Bill operated the Amoco service station on East Main Street. I used to deliver newspapers to him until someone else took over the service station. My deepest sympathy goes out to all of you.###imported-begin###Brant Hart###imported-end##
