Luke was so precious to me. I will always remember him and love him. He had a beautiful, kind and loving heart. He would come to the credit union and sit and talk to me about what was going on in his life, good and hard times. I tried to help with advice ,but mostly just loved him and listened. He came to my mind about two weeks before he left this world. I asked his grandmother Faye how he was doing. So, it was very upsetting to me when I got this news. He will be missed, but thought of often with love.

“ The last words we said to each other was that we loved each other. You'll always live on through all of us who loved you and got you. You were so talented in so many ways. The sun will never shine as bright without you here, friend. Rest peacefully, darlin. Your work here is done. You'll never be forgotten.

“ Luke, I am so glad I got to see you when I was in town back in September. I'm heartbroken that we'll never get to make music with each other like we used to. You were one of the greatest talents that I ever knew and I pushed you to make the most of it, probably a little too much at times.

You were a great friend growing up and I'll always remember the ridiculous good times you, Matt Taylor and I had getting into trouble in your neighborhood and band class.

I'm left to wonder who's team you're on playing pick up games with Bryan Spellman, Steven Holloway, Kyle Cantrell, and Andy Robertson.

I love you, brother. God speed.
