“ Because Hilda and Al are among my favorite cousins my memories of sitting around Mother and Daddy’s kitchen table with coffee and pound cake listening to the Mixon brothers tell about their childhood escapades are still vivid to me. Al would laugh so much that he sometimes seemed to lose his breath. His easy-going nature and dry wit made him a joy to be around. Sweet times!!!! I miss you Al!

“ We remember meeting your dad & mom at church some years back. Since then, they've made a tough journey through Alzheimer's, yet remained steadfast in their love for one another. We hope that everlasting tie and the memories within bring you all comfort, strength and peace. Please know you're all in our prayers. Sending virtual hugs and love!

“ I have so many great memories of Al it would be hard to pick just one. I can say that my fondest memories always involved Al's sense of humor. He could make me laugh like no other and he loved a good laugh. I did witness, in our 40 plus year friendship, a loving husband and father who always brought laughter to his family and friends. Fly high with the Angels Al and hope you've got a great view of The Great Wall of China.
