“ Wayne was a outstanding, dependable individual who lived his love of Christ. Always a helping hand with a sweet smile. I can not count the times he has come to help us. Our neighbor for 30 years and a true friend. Words can not express our sincere love for him and his sweet wife Judy. We miss him so much and the light he brought to our lives.

“ Wayne was a wonderful human being. He was kind to everyone. I meet Wayne 9 years ago when I moved to Greer and was looking for a place to play tennis.

Play singles with him many times. Though I did not play with him for the past 2 years we talked almost every week. I will miss picking up the phone and calling him.

I miss him so much and I will continue to talk to him just not by phone.

My prayers go out to his family. We have a lost a true Christian man.

Rest in piece my friend. Till we meet again.

*Love
