“ I remember meeting Will for the first time back when he was dating my grandmother, Elizabeth Mack, in 1991. Fortunately for our family, Will and my grandmother married shortly thereafter.

Will is one of the most honestly loving people I've ever known. He would do anything for his family and kept up with their every move. I'll never forget how, when I was studying in Beijing, I picked up the phone in my dorm one day to hear Will and my Grandma Mack! Will had tracked down my phone number, figured out the time zones and called to say hello! That was just the kind of person Will was, and I will always remember his kindness, his honesty and his patience with life and everyone around him. I have learned a lot from Will and will miss him.##imported-begin##Lauren Mack Janus##imported-end##
