“ Marilyn and I both want to extend our condolences. We were out of town and could not attend the services and have missed contacting you at home. Our prayers go up daily for strength and support for the entire family.

Time is so short here but heaven is brighter today knowing Will is there.

With our prayers,

“ When I was around Will, I knew heaven was missing an Angel, and he was on loan to us. We were very blessed for such a short time with such an impressive young man with that incredible smile. I love you handsome Will.

Dena & Rob, as I told you before, you raised a Son anyone/everyone would be proud to have! I know he was very proud to be your Son! Please know that y'all are in my thoughts and prayers. If there is ever anything that I can do, please call. May God Bless you and carry you through.###imported-begin##Stacey###imported-end##

“ Dena and Robert, I am so sorry for the loss of William, I can't begin to understand what you are feeling. No parent should ever have to go through their child's death, just wish we knew what the plan was. But Dena, William was a special young man, I still remember all the times when he would fall down and act like he was hurt just to see everyone turn and look. May God be with you and your family. William is gone "Way Too Soon" but he is in a better place.##imported-begin##Wendy Harrison Lynn##imported-end##
