“ I remember, I smile, then I thank God that I was fortunate enough to have known Bill in this world...and that I have also been blessed to be able to meet his wonderful family including his deceased wife, Mrs Nora. To each family member I pray that The Lord will place His hand of strength and comfort around you now. Your memories bring a smile to my face. Although I'm saddened, I know that Mr. Bill is now in the best company ever...the company of the Kingdom of God.
