“ Giles and I loved Bill and will always think of him and his infectious joy and humor! He so loved his family and friends and loved planning a party and making his delicious recipes for them. I'll miss his posts of his photography and I'll miss that sweet man's gift of showing you how much he cared for you. Candi Giles and I love you too and will be praying for you and Mason in the coming days.

I am so sad today. Bill's not with us anymore and hopefully watching over us. He was such a good man. Candi knows all about that and I'm positive all his family and friends, as well. Candi & I met in elementary school ages ago, and when she met Bill, she knew he was the one for her. Candi, I know you'll be missing him and we will too. He was so kind. Loved him too.
