

William D. Geen

September 27, 1943 - May 31, 2026

William Douglas Geen, 82, passed away May 31, 2026.

A native of Owensboro, Kentucky, son of the late Joseph William and Jamie Purcell Geen, he was a graduate of Georgia Tech, the former owner of Control Systems Associates, and the founding member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans Ballenger Camp #68

Surviving are his wife of 63 years, Carolyn Fuglaar Geen of the home; two daughters, Laurel Sullivan of Austin, Texas and Elizabeth Geen Atkins (John) of Moore, South Carolina; a son, William Douglas Geen, Jr. of Moore, South Carolina; a sister, Barbara Earl Gregory (Charles) of Venice, Florida; nine grandchildren, Caroline Sullivan, Gene Sullivan, Forrest Sullivan, Evelyn Nicole Atkins, Emily Grace Atkins, Madeline Rachel Geen, Olivia Rose Massey (Cameron), Gwendolyn Isabelle Geen, and Josephine Elizabeth Geen; and two great-grandchildren, Theodore Alton Massey and Maisy Massey.

Mr. Geen was predeceased by a brother, Robert Joseph Geen.

A private service for the family will be held at a later date.

Memorials may be made to Sons of Confederate Veterans, Spartanburg Camp #68, scvcamp68commander@hotmail.com.

Online condolences may be made to www.thewoodmortuary.com.